Attendees:

Dan Carstens
Rachel Parra
Sarah Singer
Michelle Barrows
Janell Grenier
Meghan Payne
Jason Taurianien

DC:

- Reviewed plans for graduation
- Discussed new hires for next year
- Reviewed student engagement under quarantine
 - 98 students are doing offline work- ¼ of the population
 - 94-96% engagement (at least once)

SS:

- Year book has been completed and it a success
- Students are feeling the effects of social isolation and teachers are working hard to keep kids engaged.
- Janell and Nicole has created a form to track student involvement
- Teachers are actively working towards streamlining their classes in an online format
- There will be fun celebrations in creative ways for seniors

MB:

- Lots of contacting, supporting SEL, grading- focus on supporting the students

JG:

- tracking student engagement with Nicole because we “needed a system for our system”
- Narrowing down needs of students and families
- Community resource list from Nicole- being utilized across the Borough

RP:

- NPRSA still closed indefinitely, looking into options for virtual classes for adults and kids

SY:

- Zoom/ class meetings are very helpful to keep a connection between students, teachers, and peers. Thankful for all of the contacts made by the teachers. Specifically, middle school communication has been great

MP:

- Grad planning committee meeting once a week, trying to make it special for the seniors. Parents having trouble working full time and getting school work done after work. Question about fall sports- is there a deadline for a decision to be made? (No date as of now, it depends on the governor's phases and how quickly we work through them). Are outdoor facilities open for workouts? (Yes, but follow guidelines- keep it small, social distance)

DC:

- Presented new schedule for next year
- Approved
